Class Descriptions:

Each day of camp begins with a morning assembly. The games, lessons and activities in each class session serve to reinforce the lessons shared during the assembly time.

Celtic Corner Crafts – Join us for Celtic craft time! We'll be making things like Baa-loved Sheep, S.O.A.P. Bibles, Nightlight in the Darkness and much more. Our time will emphasize how Jesus is our Good Shepherd.

Green Meadow Games – In Green Meadow Games, campers will enjoy activities like the Lost Sheep Relay, strongman challenges and obstacle courses as they walk through the principles of Psalm 23.

Flock Talk Time – This Bible lesson class will focus on David's life and the different names of God that we see on display through our theme verse, Psalm 23. We'll be learning from our animals pals of the week, doing small projects and reciting our memory verses for prizes!

Camp goes from 8:45 AM – 12:35 PM every day. A snack will be provided each day; bringing your own snack is optional. Please join us on the final day of camp, Thursday, June 22nd, for the PARENT EXPO at 12:10PM. This time will showcase what your child has learned while attending Kid's Camp, and will last approximately 45 minutes. Hotdogs and other snacks will be available!

Campers are asked to bring loose change each day as part of a fundraising effort. This year we will be partnering with The Center for Women to help raise funds to support women and children in need. The Center for Women is an organization based in Jackson, MI that offers pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, information about pregnancy and parenting for men and women. They have a team of trained staff who help educate women facing unplanned pregnancy, and teach them that abortion is not their only option.

If sending your child to camp with a cell phone, please instruct them to keep it on silent mode and put away during camp time. Or, they may leave their phone in the church office until check-out time each day. We want camp to be a distraction-free experience for all!
